University Cancellation Policy:

If you cancel your participation in the program due to your withdrawal from the university or for any other reason(s), you still remain obligated to pay any payment(s) scheduled to be paid prior to and/or on the official date of your official cancellation notice based on the following:

Withdrawal between 9/1-9/15/17: 50% refund (half of first payment);
Withdrawal on or after 9/16/17: No refund

The initial application fee and deposit are non-refundable regardless of the official date of your cancellation.

To officially and effectively cancel your program participation due to your withdrawal from the university or for any other reason(s), you must inform the faculty program leader(s) in writing, with copy to Cara Gilpin cgilpin@unca.edu and Bonnie Parker bparker@unca.edu at Study Abroad. Failure to abide by the schedule of payments (making late payments or no payments) does not constitute an official cancellation on your part, and you will be responsible for making all payments scheduled prior to the date of your written cancellation notice, including payments owed ON the date of your written cancellation. Students who have not paid in full the program cost and any other pending charges on their UNC Asheville student account by the final payment deadline may be withdrawn from the program while (1) still owing the full program cost, (2) not being entitled to any refunds, and (3) losing any applicable financial aid eligibility status.

Important Notice About Financial Aid:

We strongly advise you to see a Financial Aid Counselor to inquire about your financial aid eligibility status prior to submitting your application packet and entering this financial contractual agreement. Deadlines for submitting financial aid paperwork may precede Study Abroad deadlines. If you’re planning to use financial aid to fund all or part of the program cost and related tuition charge, please keep in mind the following: Should your financial aid not be sufficient to cover all of you program expenses you will need to be prepared to pay the balance by the program deadline. If this balance is not paid by the program deadline this could cause your registration to be cancelled. Also, this could affect your financial aid. Financial aid refunds are not available until the first class day of the beginning of each semester at UNC Asheville. Should you need documentation of your financial aid award, you should copy the award from your OnePort and submit to the Study Abroad Office.
